FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1929.

WILLIAM BOOTH'S CENTENARY

The centenary of the birth of William Booth founder of the Salvation Army (he was born on the tenth of April, 1829,) is an event that compels reflection.

One of the founder's talking subjects during one of his visits to America was "What I Have Done With My Life," and with an evangelist's proneness to the personal he would finish with the interrogation: "What have you done with yours?"

The Salvation Army certainly stirred the dry bones of religious life and activity in Great Britain and these soon followed on the heels of his movement forward movements among the Nonconformists and a Church Army among the Episcopalians; in fact when William Booth unfurled the flag of "The Blood and Fire" in Tokio, and speedily helped to pass a law freeing 40,000 white slaves from the Yoshiwara, the Buddhists started a rival army! Imitation is still the sincerest form of flattery.

In sociology, William Booth was as daring as he was in religious innovations. He was moved to tears while passing over our western wheat fields to see hundred thousands of bushels of grain rotting away. He contrasted that economic failure with the starving millions he had left behind in his own fatherland and prayed that his life be spared long enough to bring the two facts together—the hungry and the waste food. In that hour of compassion was born the Army's great social schemes, the comprehensiveness of which will be gathered from the following statistics: 4287 officers and 1542 social institutions.

We are not yet out of the morass. May the Salvation Army gain strength to its moral and spiritual muscles in the task before our present civilization in helping us to get rid of it!

THIS IS GENERALLY TRUE

Of small military significance but important for another reason, is the desertion of several lieutenants from the rebel army of Escobar. These subalterns wearied of the uncertainties of the rebel retreat and the infrequency of pay day and stopped and waited for the federal army to catch up so they could surrender. It is nowhere recorded that they were court martialed and shot, as was done with General Jesus Aguirre, and his brother, also a general.

The secret of the importance of the story is that there are officers in the Mexican armies below the rank of general.

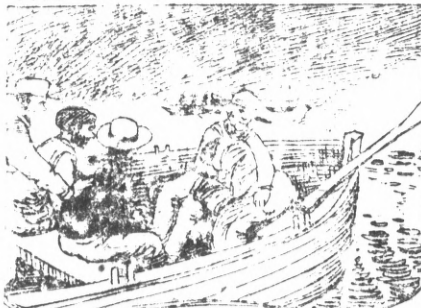

Without this mishap perhaps we would never have known from the news accounts that the Mexican armies had any provision for lieutenants, captains, majors and colonels.

Mose—it is related—applied for leave of absence from his janiting job to join a lodge and next morning told his boss he had been elected "soopreem gran' king." The boss expressed surprise that such an honor should be given to one newly initiated. "But boss, you see it's dis way—de soopreem gran' king am de lowest office in de lodge."

The United States has had three generals. Aside from Salles, Almazan and Cardenas who are directing the war on the north there are 100 or more generals with the federals. Mexico rates 370 generals of whom 300 are in active service. Few of these generals are actually prominent, but most of them are veterans of many campaigns. They have had plenty of practice. They live along with the troops and the most vigorous and noteworthy of them are often found rolling their own tortillas and doing their own cooking at a small individual fire. At the lowly practices of the foot soldiers, such as making long marches across the desert and undergoing the hardships of camp life with few conveniences, they are as skilled as the most leathery peon private.

If the "Yankee Doodle Flyers" who are planning to assist the Rebel general, Escobar, are no more lucky than Harry Tucker's "Yankee Doodle" airplane, the outcome of the rebellion is settled right now.

Richmond Lilies To Cheer The World

Growing, Easter lilies and other flowers is Richmond's newest industry.

It was revealed last week when the Southern Farm company shipped a carload of Easter lilies to Los Angeles from the E. G. Eby nursery (Richmond). The carload arrived in the southern city without damage to a single blossom, according to L. G. Eby, local agent.

Nearly 2000 lilies in pots were packed into freight cars ready for export and packing in boxes for retail sale.

The lilies are produced in Richmond under glass.

The lilies come from Japan and require five months to mature. Each blossom was not only protected but was wrapped in waxed paper to protect the blossom. Lilies are packed on an exact time schedule so that they will reach maturity the week before Easter.

More than 10,000 Easter lilies were produced by Obyan in Richmond this year.

Mrs. Mae Holey and Mrs. Grace Holey, Richmond girls, assisted in loading the blossoms into the cars.

FOX THEATERS ADDS 10 NEW HOUSES

Another circuit of theaters—this one numbering ten houses has passed into the management of Fox West Coast theaters.
Announcement was made today by Harold B. Franklin, president of Fox West Coast theaters, that the circuit has acquired the Dolan circuit of theaters in the far northwest.

The ten theaters involved are all in the state of Washington,
as follows:
The D & R theater, Aberdeen;
the Bijou, Aberdeen; the Weir, Aberdeen; the Dream, Aberdeen;
the Grand, Centralia; the Liberty, Hoquiam; and the Seventh Street, Bellingham.

New Have 235
The acquisition of these ten theaters greatly strengthens the position of Fox West Coast in the northwest and brings the total number of theaters under the operation of that company to 235.

It brings the total number of houses under the management of the William Fox parent organization to 1250, the largest group of theaters by several hundred under one banner in the world.
This huge national circuit of theaters embraces theaters of all capacities, but most of them are of the latest type, the most modern in construction, the "finest" theaters in their respective cities.

Many Large Houses
It includes such theaters as the Roxey and Capitol in New York city—the largest theaters in the largest city. In the Rocky alone the weekly gross averages more than $100,000 a week, at times going as high as $140,000.

It includes such circuits as the Lowy national circuit of theaters, the Poli circuit in New England, and the Mid-West circuit in the middle west. It includes new modern 5000 seat houses in Washington, Bellingham, San Francisco, and many other cities. It includes more than 200 theaters in the Metropolitan area of New York city.

Building Program
The building program of the current chain of theaters will continue. In many spots old houses will be razed, as in the case of Stockton, California, and new theaters built in their stead. In other cities, where the structures are modern, theaters will be absorbed.

Nothing will be left undone to prevent the Fox organization from continuing the largest and greatest in the theater world.

To supply this huge circuit of 125 theaters with pictures, two studios are busy at work turning out box office attractions.
The product of the giant Metro-Goldwyn Mayer studios has been added to that of the William Fox studios, to insure a steady supply of superior productions.

"The REDEEMING SIN"
By VIRGINIA MORRIS
BASED ON THE STORY BY L.V. JEFFERSON

SYNOPSIS: Fleurette does not know that Jettur, the Apache leader, is responsible for the death of her brother. She blames Dr. de Boise, whom she intends to punish by making him fall in love with her. Instead she loses her heart to him. A rift comes in their romance. Fleurette falsely accusing the parish priest of poisoning her sweetheart's mind. lays a sympathetic hand upon his arm. "Like all doctors, you think too much of the flesh and not enough of the spirit, Raoul, my boy!" The doctor bows his head —nothing matters now but Fleu-rette.

"I HAVE known her since she was a baby," the priest continues, "Let me tell you, no matter what else she may be, she has never belonged to that liar, Jetteur." Raoul's mind is eased. He bids the pastor good-night with a lighter heart. From the organ loft he walks through the church, groping his way through the thick darkness of the great, silent building.

IN the meantime, Fleurette has been spending miserable hours in her little room over the Cafe Paradis. The beautiful temple of her love for Raoul has crashed into ruins. Shattered are all her bright dreams for the future. He seemed to love her once but he was willing to listen to the lies of a fat old priest! To do something to hurt them both is her only desire.

JETTEUR is a resourceful fellow. He takes advantage of every opportunity, including the mood in which he finds Fleurette.
There is a way to repay Father Colomb. The chalices and jeweled ornaments in the church are of great value. When darkness has fallen he guides her by a route he knows well and they enter the cathedral through a small trap door in the stone floor.

MANY JOIN C. C. IN MEMBER CAMPAIGN

The campaign for wider support for the Chamber of Commerce is fully launched and shows signs of greatly increasing the membership. It was announced yesterday at a meeting of the committee in charge of the drive.

Although team workers have had but two days to devote to the task more than a score of new names have been added to the Chamber's rolls. It was announced.

Under the leadership of Ralph H. Bergen, membership committee chairman, the team captains reported the results of their work in the first two days of the campaign, and declared that men so far approached had indicated a lively interest in the Chamber of Commerce and a willingness to join.

Workers Report

Campaign workers reporting yesterday included Bergen, E. B. Eull, Ivan Conn, C. C. Kratzer, E. J. Burg and J. L. Burke, all reporting new members signed up since the campaign officially opened on Tuesday of this week. Kratzer carried off the honors for the largest number reported by any one captain, with six memberships.

A large number of available prospects have not yet been seen by the workers, and indications point to the signing up of a large number of members during the next few days. It was said at yesterday's meeting.

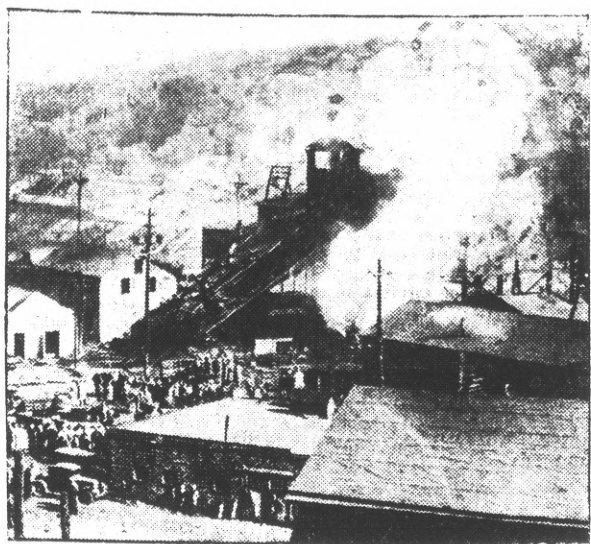

The effort will be continued into next week and even longer if this is necessary to make the calls already planned, it was announced.

Meeting Monday

The committee is to meet again at luncheon next Monday at the Hotel Carquinez to report further results and plan new methods of carrying on the campaign. At the Monday meeting not only the team captains but the full list of workers on each team will be present.

"Our workers so far have found a lively interest in the work of the Chamber and an appreciation of what it is doing," said Bergen. "The public attitude speaks well for the success of this campaign and for continued strong support of the Chamber program."

YACHT TAKEN BY COAST GUARD

PHILADELPHIA, April 4—(U.P.)

The trim auxiliary steamer Nomad was being towed into port by a coast guard vessel tonight in the hope that an investigation might disclose how its skipper was washed overboard and why four seamen were found unconscious in a luxurious stateroom in which 40 bottles of liquor rolled with the toss of the craft.

The owner of the Nomad, Leland H. Ross, socially prominent New Yorker, was aboard when the idle craft, its sails fluffing in the wind, was found 18 miles at sea. Joseph Green, customs supervisor here announced that Ross was under arrest along with two members of the Nomad's crew and they will be questioned when the Nomad puts into port tonight.

There still is much mystery about the Nomad and how it was found. Official reports here did not mention the missing captain, nor did they mention more than two seamen. The reports concerning the captain and how the four men were found unconscious on the cabin floor came from the coast guard station at Cape May, N. J., where the Nomad first was taken.

Green's statement this afternoon concerning Ross' arrest said: "The American auxiliary schooner Nomad, which is documented as a pleasure vessel, home port, New York, owned by Leland H. Ross, Jersey City, was seized by the United States coast guard service at about 9 o'clock last evening in the vicinity of fire fatom lightship off the Jersey coast."

"The vessel is now in the custody of customs officers and is being towed to Philadelphia. The alleged owner of the craft and two seamen are now under arrest and being brought to Philadelphia for questioning. The vessel had on board a quantity of intoxicating liquors and prior to the time of seizure had sent out distress signals and the coast guard in the response to the call of distress, subsequently seized the vessel."

THREE SEAMEN "INTOXICATED"

WASHINGTON, April 4—(U.P.)—The two masted American schooner Nomad, found floating adrift with only three men aboard off Cape May, N. J., today contained a cargo of "illegal contraband," coast guard headquarters here were advised today by the coast guard Cape May station.

The coast guard report said the schooner was bound from the West Indies to New York and three seamen on board were found to be intoxicated.

The three seamen, when questioned by coast guardsmen, said the skipper, John D. Scofield, was lost overboard in a rough sea on March 30.

The schooner is being towed to Philadelphia by coast guard boats for further investigation by the U. S.

Oxygen Used In Life Fight

MARTINEZ, April 4—County hospital authorities tonight were battling to save the life of Carl E. Kensteen, 26, employee of the Shell Oil company.

Neighbors found Kensteen lying on the floor of his apartment in the Smith Apartments here tonight. Near him was a gas plate, the jet wide open.

He was rushed to the county hospital where physicians are making an attempt to revive him through the use of oxygen.

FEDERAL GETS NEW STOCK FOR SPRING

The Federal Outfitting company of Richmond wishes to announce to the public that beginning this week all spring merchandise in the local store is absolutely new. Patrons of the store will have the opportunity of purchasing new spring wardrobes with the assurance that they are entirely new and of the very latest style. All old stock in the store has been removed.

At a Federal Outfitting company convention in San Francisco last week, attended by nineteen representatives and managers of the company, and by clothing manufacturers of several large cities, plans were made for the purchasing of a new and better line of stock. Each manager is now striving to put into his own store the type of merchandise best suited to the people of his city.

Spring merchandise this year in the local store is the best ever offered for the amount of money. A. R. Vaughan, local manager, announces that he has selected a line of stock that is especially suited for the people of Richmond, not only in the line of style but

DR. PORTER AT FELLOWSHIP MEETING

Dr. Noel Porter, archdeacon of the San Francisco diocese of the Episcopal church, delivered the address before the members of the Richmond Church Fellowship last night in Wesley Methodist church.

Rev. H. I. Goehoutzer, vicar of St. Edmund's Episcopal church introduced the speaker. C. C. Kratzer, president, presided. The dinner was attended by 200 persons.

Negro songs were sung by a colored quartet from Conroe college, Texas.

Dr. Porter in his address recalled his visit to Richmond two years ago when he spoke before the same organization and congratulated the Fellowship on its increase in membership. The archdeacon deplored the way the present generation rushes through life without stopping to meditate.

The dinner was served by the ladies of St. Edmund's church, which church was host to the Fellowship. The First Methodist church will be the scene of the next dinner of the organization.

GIANNINI SON TO WED SOON

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4—(U.P.)—Lawrence Mario Giannini, vice president of the Transamerica corporation and son of A. P. Giannini, prominent financier, applied here today for a license to wed Mercedes Collins, a nurse.

Unusual secrecy attended the application for the prospective bride and groom gave their first names instead of Mario and Mercedes, as they are known in their own families and among friends.

Giannini gave his age as 34 and Miss Collins, daughter of the widow of a prominent Fresno hotel owner, said she was 32.

Miss Collins met Giannini here about a year ago, her mother said. She had come here as a registered nurse after she had graduated from the Dominican convent in Fresno with honors in music and art.

The wedding will be at the family home of the financial leader in San Mateo next Monday, it was said.

OAKS DEFEAT SEATTLE NINE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—(U.P.) Oakland and the San Francisco Mission returned to a tie for fourth place of the Pacific Coast League today when April showers caused misadventure of the team's leaders.

Oakland used three pitchers and Seattle four before the Oaks finally vanquished the northerners by a score of 5 to 3. Seattle was leading 3 to 2 when the last half of the fifth inning started but the Oaks made three runs in that session to gain a lead they kept until the end. Oakland made two hits to every one by the Indians.

An eighth inning rally in which three runners crossed the plate gave the Missions a 6 to 5 victory over the Oaks. The two teams were tied, four to four, from the fifth inning until the eighth, when the Oaks made one and the Missions rebounded with two runs.

Rain caused postponement of the contest at Los Angeles between Hollywood and the Stars while Portland could not play at Sacramento on account of wet grounds. Los Angeles, Portland and Sacramento will play in the next place.

WHAT THU?
BILL BRENNAN, THE UMPIRE, SAYS CARL IS THE CLEVEREST LEFTY AGAINST RIGHT-HAND HITTERS SINCE NAP RUCKER.

Carl Hubbell, the lad that came up from the Beaumont club of the Texas League to the Giants in mid season last year and proceeded to stand rival batters on their shoulder blades, has taken a place alongside of Larry Benton as the particular pride of the Giant leader, John J. McGraw.

McGraw is already predicting that Carl will win more than twenty games this coming year. Carl has another admirer in Bill Brennan, the old-time umpire. "I saw Hubbell work before he went to New York," says Brennan, "and I saw him turned down by a couple of club owners who didn't realize his ability. The beauty of his work is that he bothers right-handers just as much as left-handers do the bat. He is the greatest southpaw against right-handed batters since old Nap Rucker's day."

Man Sentenced To Go To Church

INDIANAPOLIS, April 4.—(U.P.)—OIS OWENS, 25, must go to church every Sunday for the next six months and remain perfectly sober during that period—or pay a fine of ten dollars and costs and serve thirty days on the Indiana State farm.

That was the sentence passed recently by Municipal Judge C. H. Jones on a man who had been charged with violating a 49 days' sentence on the same charge of drunkenness, and added to that an extraordinary circumstance: One of his pampered offspring, a 14-year-old boy, had been charged with the same offense and had been sentenced to the same term.

Tod Morgan Gets Decision Over Zorilla

LOS ANGELES, April 4.—(U.P.)—Tod Morgan, the world's junior lightweight title success, fully here tonight when he turned back Santiago Zorilla, of Panama, by winning a ten round decision.

The little dark boy who came out of the jungles in a coconut boat five years ago, took only one round by a decisive margin, and Morgan took four. The other five were even.

Three times in the late stages of the battle Zorilla was warned for hitting low. Once the bout was halted while Morgan regained his breath after a low blow.

FORD FURTHERS LOCAL PLANT PLANS

No Questions Raised
In a talk with Earl D. Parr, president of the Port Richmond Terminal corporation, Parr has given the information given above and stated that no questions have been asked concerning any of the provisions of the agreement with the Ford company.
The filling of the Ford Motor company's plant has been completed, and during the last few days night the company ordered additional harbor work which will make the harbor even better than the Ford company asked for. The Ford company asked for the Ford company land and the control of the land to the Southern Pacific company which will not only keep the Ford land but will also own the property in that section. The Southern Pacific is ready to proceed with its plans as soon as it receives its final permit from the railroad commission.

Mrs. Inman In Attack Charges Against Mate

RENO, Nev., April 4.—UP. Helene Inman, daughter of an Indiana minister, testified here today that her husband, Walker P. Inman, New York millionaire, once threatened "to fix my face so that nobody would ever look at me again."

She was a witness in her own defense at the divorce trial brought by her husband and asserted Inman even cut telephone wires when she tried to call a doctor after she had been painfully hurt by him.
Mr. Inman was making details of the murder of the newborn son she told of the asserted threat and wire cutting.
When a physician arrived to treat her he asked:
"Did Mr. Inman do that?"
"Walker said 'no, it was just an accident,'" Mrs. Inman claimed.
"Why did you say no, no?" the doctor asked, my husband when he had answered the question addressed to me.
"I don't want to go to go to the apartment," Walker explained and continued "I'll fix her face so that no one will ever look at her again," Mrs. Inman testified and then started to cry.

REBELS RENEW ATTACK ON JIMINEZ

while they were bombing rebel forces south of here.
A bullet fired from rebel lines on the ground was believed to have struck a bomb carried by the rebels. The plane was seen through field glasses to break open in flames and drop in burning fragments.
The aviators killed were Capt. Ruiz Gutierrez, pilot, and Lt. Jesus Gavona, observer. They were bombing rebel forces in retaliation for an early morning raid on the federal garrison in Naco when they crashed. Three bombs were dropped on the insurgents before the explosion occurred.

Plane Shot Down
A short time later two rebel planes bombed Naco again and one of them was shot down. However, the pilot managed to land in No Mar's Land and escaped under the protection of rifle fire from the rebel cavalry.
Eight bombs were dropped in the rebel raid, but no fatalities resulted. One unoccupied house was destroyed.
Captain Gutierrez was the daredevil of the Naco air forces and had been up on several attacks in the last several days. There were six bullet holes in his plane when he returned from a raid Wednesday.

Captain Gutierrez was a native of Mexico City and a graduate of the Mexican army flying school at Valbuena, La. Gavona, also a Valbuena graduate, came here from Mexican Lower California.
No Casualties
The fatal federal raid was made after rebel aviators had dropped seven bombs on Naco today. Three of the explosives struck in trenches, but headquarters reported that no casualties resulted.
When federal aviators took the air the raiding inspectionists withdrew.
Movement of rebel troops was not known here, but it was thought that the insurgents would not attempt ground attack on the garrison before Friday.
In addition to several air attacks, in which two federal soldiers were killed by bombs, the rebels have made on ground assault. They were repulsed Wednesday by federal machine gun and rifle fire after reaching a point within 200 yards of the trenches surrounding Naco on three sides.

Dr. Shumaker Leaves Prison

INDIANAPOLIS, April 4.—(UP)—Dr. E. S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league, came home to Indianapolis today at the head of an automobile caravan and held "open house" throughout the day and night for hundreds of his fellow prohibitionists.
The dry chief was released from the state farm at Putnamville this morning, having served 53 days of a 60 day sentence imposed for contempt of the Indiana supreme court. Seven days were deducted for good behavior.

MA 'IRRITATED' OVER AIMEE PROBE

PORTLAND, Oregon, April 4.—(UP)—If there is one subject which upsets Mrs. Minnie "Ma" Kennedy more than mention of Aimee Semple McPherson's "kidding" it has not been discovered as yet by Portland newspapermen.
"Ma" seemed irritated today when advised that her daughter had referred to the Carmel by the Sea episode during a meeting at an Angelus Temple branch in Pasadena Wednesday night.
"Aimee should drop the subject and continue to win hearts for the Lord," Mrs. Kennedy said. "What we need at this time is prayer."

It was a question about Mrs. McPherson's disappearance which was asked during the taking of Mrs. Kennedy's deposition here this week which caused "Ma" to burst into tears and halt the proceedings.
Mrs. Kennedy was busy today with a notary public in reading and correcting approximately 300 pages of the deposition she had given for use in the impeachment trial of Judge Carlos Hardy.
It was expected that the work will require several hours after which the deposition will be sent to Sacramento where the hearing is to start Monday.
